THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 17.

HOW IT HAPPENED AND WHAT IT MEANS. The Philadelphia Post (Radical) says: "The Republican party in Pennsylvania has been ruined by Republican rascality.' The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, (Radical) in speaking of the disaster in Pennsylvania and Ohio, says:

'If we read the lesson of yesterday's elections aright, it is simply a popular admonition toward moderation in the adjustment of our political affairs, and a rebuke of the extreme leadership of such men as Wendell Phillips, Sumner and Stevens."

The Newburyport Herald, (Radical) from a Massachusetts standpoint, says:

"These elections show that the reaction is universal, and therefore it is no use to attribute the changes to local questions. It extends from New England to California. It has come sooner and faster than we expected. The New York Evening Post (Radical) says:

"It cannot be denied that there has been a good deal of inconsiderate, and even dangerous legislation in Congress during the past two years. There has been a great deal more inconsiderate and dangerous talk.' The New York Sun (Independent Radical)

"The October elections have fallen with crushing weight upon the projects of the extreme party in Congress. The pet hobbies of Stevens, Butler and Sumner have suddenly met with a back set from which they are not likely to recover."

COMING TO VIRGINIA. The Hagerstown Mail notices the movement

southward and says:

"For several days past there have been a great many arrivals in Hagerstown of Lancas- Convention, at the approaching election from ter and York county farmers, on their way up the Valley of Virginia, in the search for farms. They are all of that substantial, industrious and intelligent class of agriculturalists who have made the eastern counties of Pennsylvahia a garden spot, and many of them are accompanied by their wives, whose judgment in the selection of a farm they very justly place a high estimate upon. The great proportion have arrived in the cars of the C. V. Railroad, but on Friday last, a large wagon, expressly fitted up for the occasion, and drawn by six prompt attention. splendid gray horses, passed through town with about a score of purchasers and their wives atoard. Virginians will be benefitted by the introduction of this population.'
